Event Report

On the occasion of the liberation day, a painting exhibition. Programme was organized by the Gramin (ACS) College Vasantnagar on 17.09.2025. The Maharashtra Government celebrated 'Nomadic Tribes Day' 31st August 2025 for the first time at the government level on 31st August 2025. In this exhibition the Schedule Tribes Act 1879 declared the nomadic tribes as pushed away from the social mainstream. But the Act of 1952 declared these tribes as given the right to free due to this act. They were religious economic and social facilities with the right given by the Constitution. We can live a good life like others. The tribes got this knowledge.

This exhibition will show case the struggle for justice under the Criminal Tribes Act 1871, folk art preservation of the Lalbadan, Samsukri, Contribution to society, education empowerment, determination and rights through five paintings.

Five such paintings were included in the exhibition. Students of social studies participated in the painting with great joy. Said Ms.Godalwad Saraswati a student even though the constitution has given its approval, these tribal societies.

Awareness is necessary to translate the knowledge given by the Sannigni into reality. Though the exhibition of pictures the life of the nomadic tribes should be made known to the society. Due to which this nomadic tribe should also be a part of our society and a place should be created keeping the goal in mind success.

The exhibition was inaugurated by Co-secretary Shri.G.S. Pawar, the principle of the college Prof.Dr. Haridas Rathod, presided over the function. The chief guests were Principal Tukaram Mangnale and retired vice-principal Nagorao Sonkamble (Seva Das Secondary and Higher Secondary School, Vasantnagar).

The introduction of this programme was given by the head of social welfare Department Prof.Dr.Mathpati G.H. and Dr.Saroj Gaikwad gave the speech. On this occasion all college students and staff was presented.
